MANAGEMENT PROJECT

Use of the data collected for the purposes of the Management and Productivity project ("the Project") or materials produced for the purposes of the Project is restricted to research for the Project only. No private or commercial use is permitted, nor use for research on any project or activity other than the Project.

I, _____, hereby promise to use data collected for the purposes of the Project ("Project Data") or materials produced during the Project ("Project materials") only for purposes directly connected to the Project.

I further promise to act at all times so as to preserve the confidentiality of individuals and their employing organizations interviewed for the purposes of the Project. All data acquired during interviews, whether retained as Project data or not, is to be regarded as confidential and not to be used for any purpose other than those which are at the express direction of Professor Bloom ("Project Director").

I undertake not make use of or attempt to make use of data bases or other records of Project data (whether written or electronic) other than at the express direction of the Project Director.

I understand that attempts to make copies of Project data (whether written or electronic), in whole or in part, or any violation of the above clauses, may be subject to such disciplinary measures as deemed appropriate.

I understand that attempts to make copies of Project materials (whether written or electronic), in whole or in part, or any violation of the above clauses, may be subject to such disciplinary measures as deemed appropriate.

I promise to safeguard my userids and passwords at all times, ensuring that no unauthorised person can gain access to the database or to my e-mail account (ie. the results).

I undertake not to give any third party access to Project data or Project materials either directly or indirectly, except at the express direction of the Project Director.
